Milo And The Magical Stones In this tall-format book, about a mouse who finds a glowing stone that helps ward off the cold, dark days of winter, he adds an additional visual twist. At a pivotal point the remaining pages literally split in two horizontally, offering readers a choice between a ""happy"" and a ""sad"" ending....Pfister fans will definitely want to add this one to their collections. Milo and the Magical Stones: Pfister, Marcus ... Milo and the Magical Stones is a precious book about mice and the island they live on. One day Milo finds something extraordinary—a shiny stone! The stone brings the mice light in the winter, and soon each mouse wants a stone of their own. The wisest mouse reminds them that when they take something they must give something in return. Milo and the Magical Stones by Marcus Pfister Milo lives with other mice on an island where he discovers a magic stone that provides heat. The village council decides to form an expedition to go on a search for other stones so they can all stay warm in the winter. In this game, take Milo and two other mice on an adventure that follows the plot of the children's book Milo and the Magical Stones. Amazon.com: Milo and the Magical Stones - PC/Mac: Video Games One mouse, Milo, discovers a magical glowing stone (thereby allowing Pfister's other trademark--dazzling reflective elements--to take the stage) that provides heat. The other mice, understandably, would like stones for their caves. Balthazar, something of a sage, cautions that the stones belong to the island and something must be given in return for their use. MILO AND THE MAGICAL STONES by Marcus Pfister , Marcus ...
