Polyol Pluracol 1168 Polyol is a general purpose aromatic initiator-based polyol for rigid foams for use in a variety of applications. It is attractively priced for consideration for foaming insulated panels, refrigerators, trailers, furniture, etc., by pour-in-place or frothing techniques. Pluracol 1168 - BASF Polyurethanes An aliphatic-amine initiated polyol designed for blending with other polyols. It offers lower viscosity than VORANOL™ 770 polyol and exhibits excellent HCFC-134a compatibility. This product provides autocatalytic activity, reducing catalyst requirements and improving flow, compressive strength, and K factor when blended with other rigid polyols.
